

INTERCOLONIAL CAR SHOPS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Damage Placed at Three Quarters of a Million--Commission Will Investigate Canadian Insurance Affairs

Qlawa, Feb. 26.--Fire broke out in the workshop of the Intercolonial at Montreal, N. B., last night and the greater part of the shops were destroyed. The damage has reached probably three quarters of a million. Hon. H. R. Emerson left for the scene of the fire today.

Hon. W. S. Fielding gave out an important statement today. He said that a commission had been appointed to investigate life insurance business in Canada and would make a report in time to be presented to Parliament at the coming session, so that legislation could be passed remedying any defects that may be in the system. It is not thought any irregularities exist, in view of the disclosures across the line it was thought best to take this course. The names of commissioners are not yet given out.

Hon. F. Oliver has received a report from Dr. Haanel, superintendent of Mines, from Sault Ste. Marie, where he is experimenting in electric smelting of iron ore, to the effect that the experiments have been successful on all points. Forty tons of pig iron produced by this process proves the possibility of immediate commercial application of the system. This means a revolution in iron mining in Canada.

LLOYDMINSTER LIKES ALBERTA

Citizens Decide in Public Meeting that their Town Should be in this Province

At a public meeting held in Lloydminster on Friday evening, the citizens decided almost unanimously that they were in favor of being included in the Province of Alberta rather than in Saskatchewan.

Lloydminster is the first town in the Dominion of Canada which has had an opportunity to choose which province it would be in, and this happens to be the case owing to a peculiar circumstance. When the Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan were laid out the boundary line was placed at the fourth meridian. This meridian runs directly through the middle of the town of Lloydminster; in fact the fourth meridian is the main street of this town. Consequently one half of the town is in Alberta and the other half in Saskatchewan. In order to be able to conduct the business of the place as a municipality, it was necessary to alter the boundary line so that the entire town would be in one or the other of the provinces. For some time past there has been considerable local discussion in Lloydminster as to which province they should annex themselves with, but the public meeting called on Saturday night was the first action taken to express public opinion on the matter. Up until the present time it has always been supposed that the Lloydminster people favored annexation with Saskatchewan, and the Alberta announcement comes as a good deal of a surprise.

In order to make the desire of the Lloydminster people law it will be necessary to apply to the Dominion Parliament for legislation altering the boundary.

THE THISTLES RETURN.

The Edmonton Senior Thistles returned from their season tour on Saturday evening, together with the other members of the party. J. A. McKinnon who had charge of the team during the trip, speaks very highly of the treatment they received all along the line at the hands of the hockeyists of the various towns and cities they visited. The boys played six games, and won two. They defeated Calgary seniors 3-2. Travelling all night and the next day they reached Regina in time to go on the ice at 8. Both Arnold Johnston and Art Powers were out of the game by this time with sprained ankles. The score in Regina was 7-5 for the Reginas. Their victory was due entirely to the phenomenal work of their goal keeper, Kain, as the Edmonton boys shot six times to every one of the Regina shots. The team then doubled back to Moose Jaw, and scored a victory. After leaving Moose Jaw the boys were in very bad shape, and hardly fit to play the game. In Carberry, where the next game was played, the teams played six men a side and the game lasted three hours, on account of the poor lighting of the rink, the game being played in semi-darkness for a good part of the time. But the boys were banqueting here in royal style and enjoyed themselves. From Carberry they went to Brandon and spent a pleasant Saturday and Sunday, although they were defeated by the Brandon seniors 9-1. The Brandon gang had to play the game, however, and worked just as hard for the ninth goal as they did for the first one. From Brandon the boys travelled to Winnipeg and sat on the fence and watched the Winnipeg-Kenora game. The last game of the trip, and the best one, was played at Portage la Prairie with the Portage seniors, whom the Edmonton chaps held down to a score of 4-2.

The boys could easily have spent two more weeks in Manitoba, as requests for games were received from Souris, Hamiota, Virden, Waseley and other towns. Several of the teams expressed their willingness to come to Edmonton for games, amongst whom are Calgary, Medicine Hat, Regina, Carberry, and the Winnipeg Victorias. An effort was made by the Victorias to arrange a game with the Thistles while they were in Winnipeg, but they were unable to secure the rink.

All the teams visited were loud in their praises of the playing of the Edmonton boys.

NARROW ESCAPE

Cochrane, Feb. 22.--Two Calgary horse buyers and Lord Seymour had a narrow escape from drowning in the Bow river near Glenbow sliding last night at seven o'clock. The men had completed the purchase of a car load of stock from the Bow River horse ranch and decided to go further east. They did not know the route, so Lord Seymour concluded to accompany them. After driving some eight miles they attempted to cross on the ice.

They were warned that it was dangerous, but drove the two-horse team in a California out on the river. Near the middle the ice gave way and the two horse buyers tumbled out on the ice. Lord Seymour stayed with the rig, and for several minutes only his chin showed above the water.

A stable man who accompanied them in another rig, and who had refused to venture out on the ice with his team, went to their aid and the driver was rescued from his dangerous position. The team and cart remained at the bottom of the river.

VALUABLE TEAM BURNED IN STABLE LAST NIGHT

Fire in a Small Stable on the Corner of Queen's and Clara Street--Origin of the Fire Unknown

In a brief, but fierce fire which broke out in a small stable at the corner of Queen's avenue and Clara streets at 7.45 last night, W. J. Belfrage lost a fine team of horses and the building and contents were totally destroyed, with a total loss of upwards of $400.

The fire was first noticed by Homer Lyons, who lives in the immediate vicinity of the scene of the conflagration, and sending a boy to the fire hall to report, he and his two brothers made desperate endeavors to get the horses out of the burning building, but were unable to do so. The fire brigade made a remarkably lively run but by the time they arrived the fire had made such headway that the building was a mass of flames and the horses cremated.

No satisfactory explanation of the origin of the fire has been found. Mr. Belfrage and a boy employed by him put a load of hay in the loft of the stable on Saturday night, after which time no one, as far as is known, was in the loft, but when the fire was first seen it was issuing from that part of the building. Mr. Belfrage thinks that the fire was of incendiary origin. He valued the horses at $600, and refused to sell them not more than a week ago for $275.

C. R. Morton, of the Merchants Bank, Vegreville was in the city over Sunday.

W. A. Wier, inspector of the Imperial bank, is in town, staying at the Alberta.

Today (Monday) Mrs. B. J. Saunders is entertaining a number of friends at a game of "Five Hundred."

Dr. P. Roy left by the midnight train last night for Winnipeg, where he will attend the meeting of the Western Press Association. He will return to the city Tuesday next.

Master Laurie and Ervin Jellett were the hosts at a children's party on Friday night, and in the language of one young gentleman who arrived home at ten o'clock, tired, but happy, they all had a ripping good time.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. D. W. MacDonald was again the hostess at a card party. About six tables were surrounded with players and a very delightful afternoon was spent. The hostess wore a very pretty blue shirt waist dress, and looked exceedingly well.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. D. W. MacDonald were host and hostess at a very enjoyable "Five Hundred" party in honor of Miss Kerr. Mrs. MacDonald wore a very pretty gown of flowered crepe, trimmed with narrow Valenciennes lace and Miss Kerr wore a gown of white point d'esprit. About fifty guests were there and a very delightful evening was spent.

Mrs. Strathy gave a very enjoyable "At Home" on Friday afternoon. The orchestra added greatly to the pleasure of the guests and the whole affair went with a swing and vim hardly to be expected after all the gaiety of the past few weeks. The hostess who greeted everyone with that charming manner all her own, looked very well in a gown of pale green voile. At the tea table, which was a dream of carnations and ferns, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Turnbull presided, while Misses Eleanor Taylor, Driscoll and Fielders were the bright assistants.

AN ERRONEOUS IMPRESSION

Referring to an article which appeared in these columns a few days since, suggesting a plan for the establishment of a provincial telephone system, the Calgary Alberta assumes that the article represents the contemplated policy of the Provincial Government in the matter. The Alberta's assumption that the Bulletin spoke for the Government in the matter is entirely mistaken. In this as in other matters the Bulletin speaks for itself. What the policy of the Government on the telephone question will be has not yet been announced and it may or may not agree in spirit or in substance with the plan proposed by the Bulletin. That plan was given publicity not as a statement of Government policy nor even as the final scheme which the Bulletin would endorse against all others. It was worded and intended with the hope that it might arouse public discussion on a very important matter to the end that timely action might be taken in the public welfare.

C. P. R. MANIPULATION

The C. P. R. is issuing a new book of $40,000,000 worth of stock to be sold to shareholders in the company at par. The value of this stock in the open market today would be about $170 per $100 share. Therefore for $40,000,000 the shareholders will be given stock which in the market would bring $68,000,000.

From the standpoint of the shareholders this is doubtless a very desirable condition of affairs, but from the standpoint of the public it is less satisfactory. $40,000,000 will build or equip only two-thirds of the length of railway which could be built or equipped with $67,000,000. The country will therefore get the benefit of two-thirds the railway extension which might be secured if the stock were sold in the open market.

But the dividends to be paid on the stock will be calculated not on the money paid for the stock, but on the market value of the stock. Therefore for $40,000,000 invested in lines or equipment the traffic of the road will be taxed to pay dividends on over $67,000,000.

Were the C. P. R. a private enterprise, built up by the unaided efforts of the shareholders and under no obligations to the public these might be matters within the undoubted right of the company and with which the public had no concern. But the C. P. R. is not a private enterprise. It has been backed by the people of Canada, bolstered and bonused by the people of Canada from its inception and it reciprocates by taxing its patrons to provide dividends on fifty per cent more money than is invested in its extensions, at the same time providing an excuse for escape from the possibility of Government control of rates.

The incident sufficiently indicates the purpose and intent of the C. P. R. That purpose is to make as much money as possible, regardless of what the people of Canada have done or may do. The only remedy for the people of Canada lies in doing to the C. P. R. as the C. P. R. has done to the public and, regardless of the welfare of that corporation to continue the introduction of railway competition until the earnings of the Company are forced down to the basis of dividends on the money actually invested in the enterprise. When that time comes the C.P.R. may discover that stock manipulation has its disadvantages to the perpetrator not less than to the victim.

NOTES FROM ATHABASCA

LANDING.

Athabasca Landing, Feb. 22.—While Bishop and Mrs. Reeves were out driving last Friday, the cutter in which they were riding was upset, Mrs. Reeves was thrown out and, though severely bruised, was not seriously injured. We are pleased to say that though confined to her room she is convalescent.

Rev. Mr. Weaver, of Wabasca assisted Bishop Reeves at the morning and evening services last Sunday.

It is confidently expected that Athabasca Landing, instead of Edmonton will be the centre of the fur trade from the north next season.

A great many of the business men at the Landing have clubbed together and the result is a neat rink where curling is occasionally the order of the evening.

PROMPTLY FIRED

Prince Albert Advocate: The Toronto World thinks that the Minister of the Interior should increase the salaries of the Department officials who were responsible for the Northern Poles. The World should know, and if it were inclined to be just, should have mentioned that these deputies were promptly dismissed by Hon. Frank Oliver. If the fact escaped the notice of the World the local Tory paper that reproduces the irony of the Toronto organ, cannot urge such an excuse for its unfairness in suppressing the fact.

LONG LEGAL FIGHT ENDED

Supreme Court of Canada Gives Decision In Famous Church Case

A legal case which originated in the settlement of Wostok in the summer of 1891 and has a most remarkable career through the Canadian courts for the past six years, was settled in Ottawa on the 21st instant by the Supreme Court of Canada reversing all the decisions of the under courts through which it has travelled in getting to the highest court of appeal. The case is strange in several respects, not the least of which is the fact that it was the transplanting of religious strife from far away Austria to the plains of Western Canada, and resulted in a case, similar in every essential detail to the case of the Established and the United Free church which aroused Scotland and caused to much religious cleaving in the Old Country recently.

The commencement of the Wostok case dates with the commencement of the Galician settlement there, away back in 1892. To understand it, it is necessary to know that in the home country of the Galicians there are two religions, one the orthodox eastern Greek church and the other what is called the United Greek church, which is a branch of the Roman Catholic church. The eastern Greek church is the church of the "Little Russian", but the United Greek church is the church of the Poles. In Austria the Poles are the dominant class, consequently the United Greek religion, frequently forced on the Galicians by the landlord Poles, who while unable to retain their freedom in their own country, have managed in expatriations to become the dictators of Austria.

When the Galicians or "Little Russians" arrived in Canada, in 1892, they decided at once to take advantage of the religious liberty which the Dominion offered them and immediately put themselves in correspondence with the Orthodox Russian Bishop in San Francisco, with the result that for four or five years itinerant missionaries of their church came to administer the sacrament to them according to their faith. Along in 1897 the Galicians commenced to build a church which was finished in the fall of that year and in the spring of 1900 one Father Zaklinsky appeared among them, and claiming, it is said, that he was of the orthodox faith, was called as minister of the church at Wostok.

Father Zaklinsky had not been long the pastor of the flock when dissensions broke out and members of the congregation commenced to question his orthodoxy. These dissensions led to an open rupture and a struggle for the possession of the church, as an outcome of which the courts were resorted to. As the case developed in court it appeared that when Zaklinsky and his flock had quarreled, Zaklinsky had appointed trustees of his own making in the name of the United Greek church and that the congregation, or at least a large part of it had undertaken to stay by the original trustees appointed by themselves.

The case went into the courts in 1891, and has been until the present time coming to a conclusion. Some of the most eminent legal counsel in Alberta was engaged. For the United Greek party, Messrs. Beck, Macdonald & Griesbach, were retained, and for the eastern Greek party, Messrs. Short & Cross, handled the case. In the lower courts the case went in favor of the United Greek party, or the Zaklinsky trustees. The first action was tried before Mr. Justice Scott in Edmonton, and lasted 33 days. From there it was appealed to the full court, which sat in Calgary, and which confirmed Judge Scott's decision in favor of the Zaklinsky party. From the full court appeal was taken by the orthodox party and the decision in their favor in Ottawa after five years of fighting is the result. By that decision the orthodox congregation are free to take over and enjoy the church of their cherished faith which they built in 1900.

An orthodox minister is. It is said at Wostok and is to be called to the church to become pastor.

RINSE WELL

Sunlight Soap is better than other soaps, but is best when used in the Sunlight way (follow directions).

Hard rubbing and boiling are things of the past in homes where Sunlight Soap is used as directed.

Sunlight Soap will not injure even the daintiest fabric or the hands, and the clothes will be perfectly white, woolens soft and fluffy.

The reason for this is because Sunlight Soap is absolutely pure, contains no injurious chemicals—indeed, nothing but the active, cleansing, dirt-removing properties of soap that is nothing but soap.

Equally good with hard or soft water.

YOUR MONEY REFUNDED by the dealer from whom you buy Sunlight Soap if you find any cause for complaint.

The High School Literary.

(Contributed)

The High School Literary Society met on Thursday, in the lecture room of the McDougall Methodist Church. The meeting was called to order by Miss Lillian Doze, 1st Vice-president. After the minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted, an excellent programme was rendered by the students. The first item was a vocal solo, entitled, "That's What the Daisy Said," by Mr. York Blayne. Mr. Blayne is a very good singer, being better known however, for his splendid recitations. The next item was a recitation, "The Hot Axle," by Mr. Calhoun, which was greatly appreciated by all, because of the excellent manner in which it was delivered. The audience was then favored with a piano duet called "Country Dance," by Misses Blayne and Beals. This selection was very nicely rendered and called forth great applause. The fourth item on the program was the singing of "Junia," by the quartette, composed of Messrs. Knott, Walker, McDiarmid and Beals, which was heartily applauded. Then followed a vocal solo, called, "You and I," by Miss Jessie Cameron. Miss Cameron is one of Edmonton's favorite soloists, and is greatly appreciated wherever she goes. She replied to an encore by singing "Daddy."

Then followed the debate, the subject being, Resolved that a general reduction in the tariff would be beneficial to Canada. The affirmative was taken by Messrs. Knott and Dickson, while the negative was taken by Messrs. Bragg and Walker. The debaters spoke well and fluently, showing that they understood their subject. The critic, Mr. Johnson made a few remarks, which were followed by the judge's remarks and decision by Mr. G. E. Ellis. Although both sides were almost even in regard to points, he decided in favor of the affirmative. After a few remarks by the principal, Mr. Rea, the meeting was closed by singing the National Anthem.

Strathcona Plaindealer—Mayor Sheppard returned on Tuesday afternoon, from Calgary whither he had been summoned by Vice-President Whyte of the C.P.R. for conference regarding certain matters of mutual interest to Strathcona and the company. Mr. Sheppard has nothing for publication regarding his mission save that while he was in Calgary Mr. Whyte received a despatch from the company's bridge architects in Montreal stating that the additional cost of a traffic level on the proposed high level railway bridge would be $311,000.

—Strathcona Chronicle — J. T. Blouey, of Edmonton, who has for many years had a branch business in Strathcona, has this week sold his business to one of Strathcona's own young men, Mr. W. A. Brock. On Saturday Mr. Brock takes possession and hereafter the business will be conducted as a Strathcona concern.

Offers will be received by the undersigned up to the 24th day of March next at noon for the purchase of all the West half of Section 6 in Township 56, Range 21, West of the 4th Meridian, which lies to the west of and adjoining the left bank of the Saskatchewan River, containing about 198 acres, belonging to the estate of Joseph Adams, Deceased. The said land is about nine miles from Fort Saskatchewan.
